

Lot 20 Worthington Street, Mcdowall

Build Your Brand-New Home in McDowall's Private Gated Enclave in Somerfield Rise

Opportunities to build a brand-new home in established McDowall are already few and far between. Finding one within a secure gated community is even rarer, let alone this being a 450m² corner block just 12km from Brisbane city!?

This is your opportunity to secure the land and build a brand-new CJ Homes residence in a boutique community title development where access is limited to residents and their guests. With no through traffic, you'll enjoy a quieter streetscape, added privacy and the peace of mind that comes with a secure neighbourhood.
